

Attention Comic Artists and Comic Creators!

The vendor tables at our comic shows are for the comic sellers and they are $100-$115, but at each convention we offer a few creator tables to comic artists and comic creators! We generally allow each creator one table per city to keep each show unique. We have nine shows in four cities so if you are interested in shows in separate cities we can do that, but not multiple shows in the same city.

If you would like to be considered for a free creator table please email sixnickscomics@gmail.com with your real name (not just your company, please!), attach a few examples of your comic related artwork and/or your independent comics (not a link to your Instagram or website; I get too many to be able to browse, please!) and tell me a little bit about yourself and which show(s) you are interested in. If your art isn't comic related or the information I need isn't included I probably won't get back to you- I receive many requests each day for creator tables. If I would like to invite you to have a creator table or put you on our waiting lists (if the convention is full), I will reply within a couple days. I will keep you on our creator email list so you'll get an invitation before the season next year. This is not a guarantee; just an invitation, as we are looking to give other artists and creators a chance too.

Check out our website www.sixnickscomics.com and follow Six Nicks Comics on Facebook for our full schedule and up to date information on all our shows.

Thank you for your interest in sharing your comic art with us at our shows!
